

Duck Olympics

It's East Omaha vs. West Omaha in the second annual Duck Olympics. Teams of 4 will compete in relay races with the winning team of the West meeting the winning team of the East for the finals on July 25th at the 2nd Annual "O What a Duck Race!"

Can you waddle like a duck?
Can you balance on one leg while holding a bowl of "Duck Soup"?
Then these games are perfect for you!

WOWT and ConAgra Foods are presenting the 2nd annual "O What a Duck Race!" to benefit The Food Bank and raise funds to serve more hungry people of Omaha and Council Bluffs. 50,000 ducks will be dropped into the lake at the Heartland of America Park and race for a quarter mile until one lucky duck is the GRAND PRIZE WINNER of a 2009 Nissan Versa!

Before the actual RACE DAY (Saturday, July 25th), teams will compete in the EAST vs. WEST OMAHA DUCK OLYMPICS. The Olympics consist of fun relay races, crazy judges, and prizes for the winners! To participate, you must get a team of 4 people together, complete an entry form, and submit the entry fee of $50 to The Food Bank. Get it in early because bracket spots go quickly!

(No Entry Fee necessary if your company is a sponsor of "O What a Duck Race!")

Be creative and invent a name for your team that is related to DUCKS – be the Quackers or the Web Footed Friends, etc. Teams may be composed of adult groups, 16 years of age or older, who work together or play together – families – you select your team!
